Juniors Provide Orphans With Thanksgiving Meal

Under the direction of School Chaplain and Sodality Moderator Fr. Peter Choo, the junior class at Junipero Serra High School successfully undertook a drive to provide Thanksgiving dinners to needy orphans in Tijuana, Mexico. The drive was organized by chairman Thomas Hoffman and Tim Shea. Hoffman supervised the collection of canned goods and turkeys while Shea made all the necessary arrangements for transportation. Students were requested to bring in at least three cans per person and results were tabulated on a home-room basis. Each home-room was also asked to contribute at least $5 toward the purchase of a turkey. This is the second year that the drive has been undertaken and this year it benefited approximately 125 orphans. Members of the school Sodality distributed the cans and turkeys to the orphans during a special trip made just after Thanksgiving. Those who participated were: Mike Rainey, Ed Marzec, Jim Summers, John Wilson, Steve Guther, Bill Gramer, Tony Mannara, Frank Desimone, Dave Janda, Al Alearaz, John Mingus, Dennis True, Joe Mitz, Shea, and Hoffman.

Father-Son Teams 'Work' for El Camino

By JERRY CORBET Jim Hanchett and Al Linger are fellow employees at El Camino College. Both are proud fathers of sons who are football "greats" for the Warriors. Mike is the son of Jim and Pat is Al's son. Pat and Mike are graduates of North High School and hold honors in both high school and college for their exceptional performances. "I recommended sports to all of my boys," said the senior Hanchett, father of three boys, "to keep them out of mischief." He grinned and added, "Busy hands don't get in trouble." Mike's brothers are, Chuck, who is now in the U.S. Air Force and Jim now finishing at ECC. At North High While at North High young Hanchett participated in the wrestling team and played "slot back" on the first string varsity for the Saxons. As offensive and defensive halfback, with the Warriors, in the season of '62 Mike won top honor as "Player of the Game," in a close score of 21-18 over the Santa Monica City College "Corsairs."
